Hello, Akiva. I'm happy to delay the auction while you try to get this worked out as long as the creditor's attorney is in agreement (I've copied him so he can respond accordingly). As for the bank funds, they were already collected and disbursed.

Hopefully this matter can get resolved. Please keep me apprised.

Thank you,
Patty

Dear Patty,

Please be advised that we are attempting to work with the creditor to agree to direct the Marshal to hold off on the sale scheduled for tomorrow. Absent an agreement, my client is preparing a federal bankruptcy petition for filing in advance, which will result in an automatic stay.

Please let me know if you have intention of proceeding with the sale tomorrow in the event the bankruptcy petition is not filed.

Please also advise on the status of the money in TD Bank. My client reports that the balance in the account is zero.

Best,
Akiva Shapiro

Good afternoon, Mr. Shapiro. I am in receipt of the documents you sent. However, the creditor's attorney disagrees with your interpretation and, since the marshal is not a judge and can't decide on whose position is valid, you will need to seek any desired relief from the court.

Please keep me posted.

Thank you,
Patty
